PAYMENT OF FEES

A NON-REFUNDABLE registration fee of $20 per family is payable upon registration.

Recreational students have a trial period until the 14th of October. During this trial period there is a financial commitment of the non refundable $20 registration fee as well as payment for all enrolled classes up to and including October 14th. If a student wishes to discontinue at the end of the trial period, the parent(s) must contact the dance studio on or before October 14th via email only. After October 14th the dancer is committed to the class they are enrolled in for the remainder of the season. With this the parent(s)/guardian are committed to the full season of tuition as well as costume fees and any other fees that are listed on their studio statement. This is available to the parent(s) at any time. There are no refunds/credits of any kind.

*Families completing the last 8 weeks of classes from the spring are not obligated to any registration fees or any addition tuition/costume charges for the session of September 8th-November 2nd. As of November 3rd if a dancer wishes to continue in their class, registration fee is now applied to the account and discounted tuition for the remainder of the season applies along with a costume fee for the year end recital. Any family not wishing to continue beyond the 8 weeks of postponed classes are asked to email the studio before November 3rd.

Competitive students have a trial period until the 14th of September. During this trial period there is a financial commitment of the non refundable $20 registration fee as well as payment for all enrolled classes up to and including September 14th. If a student wishes to discontinue at the end of the trial period, the parent(s) must contact the dance studio ON OR BEFORE September 14th via email only. After September 15th the dancer is committed to the class they are enrolled in for the remainder of the season. With this the parent(s)/guardian are committed to the full season of tuition as well as costume fees and any other fees that are listed on their studio statement. This is available to the parent(s) at any time. There are no refunds/credits of any kind

Please remember that young children are often intimidated by new situations and should complete the entire trial period before any final decisions are made.

In cases of illness or injury the studio may issue a credit to be applied to the next year's tuition. Doctor's notes are required for the credit to be issued.

8 WEEK PERFORMANCE

After 8 weeks of classes from September 8th 2020, there will be a performance to showcase our dancers in their costumes. All returning dancers from last season who are completing the 8 weeks of classes from the spring will have a costume to perform in. All new dancers are encouraged to participate in this performance, however are asked to wear just a black bodysuit/tank top and either pink ballet tights (ballet only) or black shorts (all other classes). This performance will be done in a safe way only. If an in person performance is not safe to do, we will do a virtual performance and send all performances to families free of charge. More information on this will come as we are into the fall.

YEAR END RECITAL

* All students are welcome to participate in our year-end recital. Students must have excellent attendance and practice their routines. Students must understand that they are part of a team and that once they have committed to participating, it is important that they fulfill their commitments.

*Students are expected to attend 80% of the classes in order to participate in the recital

*Dancers are expected to attend their last 3 classes before recitals.

*Students who are not participating in the recital must notify the studio via email only by December 1st.

*Beginner, Novice and Jr level costume fees are $70/costume.

*Teen level costume fees as well as Acro II and up are $90/costume

IMPORTANT INFORMATION *please note sections omitted due to new COVID-19 procedures. Please see COVID-19 Safety Policies for a full list of our new safety measures

The following information is a guideline of Georgetown Dance Company and its team of staff and teachers. It is subject to change at the discretion of Management as they see fit.

*Parents are responsible for picking up their child immediately after their dance class has finished. Georgetown Dance Company will not be held responsible for students once they have finished classes and have left the facility. ~~Dancers are encouraged to wait inside for their parents.~~

~~*Parents are to remain outside of the classroom and are not permitted to enter the classroom for any reason.~~

~~*Parents are welcome to attend classes during Parent Viewing Week. If you attend, please remain seated and quiet. Please turn off cell phones. Please leave all constructive criticism of the performances and practices to the dance instructor. Please do NOT bring younger siblings along to viewing weeks as it can be disruptive to the class in progress. Please do not videotape the classes to respect the privacy of other children.~~

*Dancers are expected to respect the dress code that is posted on our website and outlined in our Studio Policies.

Georgetown Dance Company does not tolerate fighting, bullying, theft and vandalism.

Dancers and Parents are expected to demonstrate and encourage positive behaviour and attitudes. Georgetown Dance Company is family orientated environment that aims for the utmost excellence in welcoming, and creating a safe place for all dancers and families. Please help us keep the studio in such regard.

*Dancers and Parents are encouraged to continue positive, encouraging behaviour throughout social media.

*If there is a concern that you as the parent would like to discuss with a teacher or the Director, please speak with the receptionist, or email the studio email address to set up a meeting either in person or on the phone to discuss the concern.

*If weather conditions are poor, please contact the studio after 2pm. A message on the studio answering machine will announce any cancellations, postponements or classes moved to online platform. A studio email will also be sent. If there is no message or email, please assume classes are still running. Please use your own judgment during poor weather – we ask that you do not put your child's or your own health and safety at risk. Classes postponed or moved to an online platform for any reason will not be refunded. This will only happen due to poor weather conditions, severe studio wide illness, government issued closure, safety concerns for the wellbeing of the students and teachers.

*No refunds/credits are given to dancers who miss classes for any reason

Please do not send your child to class if they are ill or if they have a contagious illness. Students who have plantar warts must keep their feet covered in the studio. Students with head lice should remain home until they are positive that is no longer there.

*Please call or email the studio if your dancer will be away from class.

~~*There is to be no food in any areas of the studio except for the lunch room. Bringing food into changerooms is prohibited. **~~
There is to be no food inside the building

*Only water is permitted for dancers during their class time. Any other drink will be not be allowed in the dance rooms.

*Due to high allergies of nuts, Georgetown Dance Company is a Peanut Free building.

~~*Parents of small children are asked to take their child to the washroom before class begins.~~

*Please label all dance shoes, dancewear and water bottles with your dancer's name.

*All articles of clothing, dance shoes, and reusable water bottles left in the class after the class has ended will be placed in the lost and found bin. Please check this regularly as it is donated monthly.

*Communication is vital. Parents are expected to check their email regularly as newsletters and updates are sent out on a regular basis. It is the responsibility of the parent to update their current email address with Georgetown Dance Company. It has happened that GDC emails have been directed to personal email spam - please check and update your spam filter. Studio newsletters are also posted on our website www.georgetowndancecompany.com

*Please notify the studio of any changes in your phone number, address or any other important information.
